

FRANK GILL WINS REMSEN.

JAMAICA FEATURE PROVES NO TASK FOR M'GINNIS' COLLAR COLT.

Emperor of India Is Backed from 30 to 4 to 1—Cressina Scores a Brilliant Victory—Op-tician Displays Unusual Speed.

New York, October 29.—Winty weather reduced today's attendance at Jamaica to the regulars. The feature, the Remsen Handicap, at five and a half furlongs for two-year-olds, was captured by Frank Gill in easy fashion. The victory of Royal Breeze in the opening race was greeted with cheers. From his place in the stewards' stand, P. J. Dwyer, the venerable owner of the colt, smilingly acknowledged this unique and unusual personal tribute to him as a turfman. Optician's extraordinary display of speed in the sprint handicap excited wondering comment. A majority of the horsemen present attributed his sudden dazzling improvement to artificial stimulation. Jack Joyner's mare Cressina won a brilliant victory in the last race and critics have assigned her a place at the top of the handicap division in present training.

One of the biggest "killings" of the season was put through with Emperor of India. Not a dollar was in evidence at the opening price of 15 to 1 and the layers grew bold, steadily going up. The backing developed later and Miller's mount was backed down from 30 to 1 to 4 to 1 at the close.

Cad Doggett, the clubhouse commissioner, retired today for the season. Doggett was formerly a jockey and a pronounced failure in that line. For the past eight years he has made a big book in the clubhouse enclosure, taking many sensational wagers and on more than one occasion has bet men like Gates, Drake, Johnson and the Rainey to a standstill. He is reputed to be worth $500,000.

"I RODE TO INSTRUCTIONS," SAYS RADTKE.

Eastern Horsemen Are Now of the Opinion That Tommy Waddell Was not Pulled.

New York, October 29.—When the Jamaica stewards suspended jockey Radtke for his suspicious looking ride on Tommy Waddell, there appeared to be a general feeling that the boy had been deservedly punished, but the tide of sentiment is flowing in the other direction now. Thus far diligent inquiry has failed to show the boy was in collusion with any one and horsemen are of the opinion that he rode the horse to the best of his ability or at least in keeping with the instructions that were given him. Concerning the matter Radtke has made this statement:

"I didn't pull Tommy Waddell, and I haven't pulled any other horse. I am in the jockey business to win. That's what gets the money. This pulling business don't get you anything. I pick up a little side money once in a while, but it would put me in bad sure if I want to be a star, and I want to make all the honest money I can. It's a 100 to 1 shot that a jockey who is trying to get up a 'rep' ain't going to pull horses.

"I didn't know I was going to ride Tommy Waddell until 15 minutes before we started. I didn't have a mount and Mr. Peters came to me and asked me did I want to ride Bizzy Izzy. That horse is a bad actor and never has won a race. As I had been set down several times I didn't want to ride a bad actor, for fear the stewards would think I was the bad actor and set me down again. Bizzy Izzy is also a biter. Then Mr. Hynes, who owns Tommy Waddell, told Mr. Peters that he didn't have a rider and that I would do.

"In the paddock Mr. Hynes, in giving me the final orders, said: 'Now, this horse is liable to sulk, so don't you strike him with the whip.'

"I said 'All right' and we started. I did the best I could with him and came within an inch of finishing third. Now, that's the truth about the whole trouble. It may have looked suspicious because I didn't put the whip to Waddell, but that was my order."

MORE AGITATION IN TENNESSEE.

Memphis, Tenn., October 29.—Many factions of democrats and republicans, the democrats especially, are evincing a desire to place Tennessee in line with Missouri as having caused the followers of thoroughbred to move to another climate, and at several conventions held by wings of the democratic party, a platform has been adopted which favors the passing of a law hostile to racing men and their interests. General Malcolm R. Patterson, democratic candidate for governor, has placed himself on record as saying that if any anti-racetrack bill is passed in the next general assembly, he will sign the bill. Otherwise General Patterson is regarded by racetrack men as a friend of their interests, for his antecedents were closely identified with the thoroughbred interests of middle Tennessee, and he himself has been often seen at Montgomery Park on Derby days taking keen interest in the horse and every angle of the sport.

HAMPTON STABLE'S SUCCESS AT BENNING.

Wins About Half the Added Money—Society Folks Give the Layers a Drubbing.

Washington, D. C., October 29.—The Hampton stable was again in evidence today, the last of the United Hunts meeting here. Palm and Pete Dailey were the winners for the stable, making three straight victories for the latter and two for the former. All told the stable has won seven races and about $4,000 in purses or almost one-half of the entire amount of added money offered. Mr. Smith, owner of the stable, also leads the riders with four winning mounts. The meeting was a decided triumph for the owners from this section, Gypsy being the only New York horse to win a steeplechase.

The one drawback was the lack of horses and as a result the fields were small. The weather was clear, the track fast and the racing interesting. Notwithstanding the light fields, the public has had all the best of the speculation, the dozen layers that came over from New York getting quite a drubbing.

During the running of the sixth race Adams in some way cut his tendon badly and was pulled up. He was a hot favorite at 2 to 5. A. Jackson, who rode 'Setauket in this race, showed his gameness by remounting the horse after two falls and taking second money.

MANY HORSES ARE ARRIVING AT PIMLICO.

Rains Have Made the Track Heavy—Twelve Days of Splendid Racing Expected.

Baltimore, Md., October 29.—Several carloads of horses arrived at the Pimlico track today, and others will get in tomorrow and succeeding days until the meeting opens next Thursday. The United Hunts meeting closed at Benning today and nearly all of the stables now in Washington will ship here, and there promises to be a continuation of the interest in races for amateur riders. Secretary Riggs has been considering the advisability of putting more races on the program for the gentlemen jockeys. Already there are several races in which they will be in the saddle. The first chance they will have will be on Saturday next, when the Hotel Caswell Cup will be run. It is a race at six furlongs at thirty pounds above the scale, which will enable all the crack amateurs to take mounts. A purse of $400 is added, and the rider of the winner will receive a handsome silver cup.

There are several other flat races on the twelve days' program in which the amateurs can take mounts, but there will be more opportunities afforded in the races through the field. Baltimore has always been noted for the many society folk who attend the races, and throughout the meeting the grandstand boxes are crowded with fashionably dressed women, who are of the elite of the city. For this reason amateur races are exceedingly popular.

Baltimore's liberal patronage of the sport has done much to promote racing in this city. From a little two or three days' affair the meetings have grown so that now every spring and fall the Maryland Jockey Club holds a two-weeks' session. Racing was never more popular in Baltimore than it is now, and the increased attendance every year made it obvious that the Pimlico course was inadequate. The officials of the Maryland Jockey Club, encouraged by the support given the meetings, were therefore induced to look for another place, and the result was the selection of Haleshorpe, a station seven miles from Baltimore on the Baltimore & Ohio, and Pennsylvania Railroads, between here and Washington. This speaks much for the healthfulness of the sport, conducted as it is under the auspices of The Jockey Club.

The roster of officials for the coming meeting will be practically the same as at the spring meeting. H. J. Morris will be the steward representing the Jockey Club. Joseph A. Murphy will be the judge and handicapper, while John Boden will be racing secretary and clerk of the scales. There will be six races each day, including a steeplechase. The rains have made the going at Pimlico somewhat heavy, but trainers have had their runners out every morning and some good work has been done. The horses that have been here for several weeks are in fine shape to meet those that come directly from New York and other tracks. The steeplechase course is in excellent condition and presents as safe a field as any in the country.

TWENTY LEADING JOCKEYS.

Walter Miller's average of winners at Jamaica last week was two to a day. His total for the year is 305, the record. He improved a point in percentage during the past week. Here is the standing of the twenty leading race winners to and including October 27:

MARIUS II. TO TRY FOR THORNTON STAKES.

A. B. Spreckels Enters the Thirteen-Year-Old Stallion in Oakland's Long Distance Event.

San Francisco, Cal., October 29.—Horsemen will be surprised to hear that the English stallion Marius II., which, with Solitaire II. has been at the head of the Spreckels Stock Farm Stud at Napa, is to be put in training. Marius II. has never raced in America, and the experiment of racing him after several years retirement will be watched with interest. He has been entered in the Waterhouse Cup at two and one-quarter miles and the Thornton Stakes at four miles.

Marius II. is thirteen years old. He is by St. Serf, out of Sunny Queen, by Newminster. Sunny Queen was sent to France from England in 1892 after being mated with St. Serf. The following spring Marius II. was foaled in France. He was not raced in that country, but was taken to England as a two-year-old by Monsieur R. Lebaudy, and was raced by him three seasons, being then sold by auction to C. D. Ross for $5,250. He later passed to E. Cassell and it was in his colors that he ran his last race, in 1898. In 1902 he was brought to America and was placed in the stud at Mr. Spreckels' farm in California. Elmdale, Cinna and Frank Flesher are among his two-year-olds now racing.

Marius II. was a good racehorse in England. He won ten of his twenty-seven starts. At two years of age he was second for the Steward's Nursery Handicap at Hurst Park, conceding twelve pounds to the winner, six furlongs, six starters; third for the Houghton Stakes, Newmarket, beaten a head for the place, the Rowley mile; unplaced for the Molecomb Stakes at Goodwood.

At three he won the Hartwell Plate, one mile, at Northampton, 124 pounds; won Montefiore Plate, one mile, at Gatwick; third for the Walton Welter Plate, one mile, at Kempton Park; won the Regulation Plate (walkover), one mile, at Hurst Park; won the Curfew Plate, one mile, at Windsor; second for the Eaton Plate, one mile, at Chester; won the Chatsworth Plate, one mile, at Derby; unplaced for the Allisrae Stakes at Derby, one mile, seven-year starters.

At four he was second for the Lincoln Autumn Handicap, one and one-half miles, conceding winner age and eight pounds; won the Gopsall Plate, two miles, at Leicester, seven starters; won (dead heat) Kempton Park Handicap, one and one-half miles; second for the Hainton Stakes at Lincoln, one and one-half miles, beaten a head, carrying twelve pounds, twenty-three more than the three-year-old winner; unplaced three times.

At five he won the Castle Ashley Handicap, one and one-half miles, six lengths, ten starters, top weight; third for the Southwestern Handicap, one and one-half miles, eight starters; next to top weight; won the Goodwood Plate, two and one-half miles, by three lengths, seven starters; won the Champagne Handicap, two miles, six starters, top weight; third for the Kempton Park Handicap, ten starters; third for the Harewood Handicap, Kempton Park, six starters, top weight; second for the Northamptonshire Stakes, 154 pounds, conceding twelve pounds to winner; unplaced for the Ascot Stakes and Durdans Handicap at Epsom.

JONES THINKS HIGHLY OF ELECTIONEER.

Lexington, Ky., October 29.—Frank Jones, the veteran trainer, who, in the last twenty years has developed many famous horses, including Clarence H. Mackay's Brooklyn and Metropolitan Handicap winner, Banastar, has come home to winter after seeing all the racing in the east this year. He says Salvidere stands out all alone among the two-year-olds of the season, with the exception of the Futurity winner Electioneer, and he has at that the edge on the son of Voter, as he beat him in the Montank Stakes, at Brighton Beach, the only time the pair met.

Electioneer, however, was a much improved colt later in the season, and the contest the two had in the early stake was not a decisive test as to their relative merits. Jones says while Salvidere is a good looking youngster, Electioneer is the highest type in form of the two, being one of the grandest colts in appearance that has been seen on the eastern tracks in years.

The old trainer looks for a great race next season between these cracks when they hook up at their best form as three-year-olds. Jones will take a horse or two to Latonia before that meeting is over to pick up a purse to pay winter feed bills. He has done little racing in the west for a number of years.

J. E. WIDENER GETS BEN SHAW.

Cincinnati, O., October 29.—Howard Lewis, acting for J. E. Widener, purchased from J. B. Respass today the good jumper Ben Shaw. The price reported was $5,000. He also bought Steve Lane. Negotiations are pending for the purchase of Squanderer from J. W. Pugh. The colt is a promising green jumper and was schooled over the course after the last race for Lewis' benefit.

PHILLIPS NOT GOING TO CALIFORNIA.

Cincinnati, O., October 29.—Trainer Bill Phillips denied today the report sent out from Lexington that he would ship Fred Cook's yearlings to California. "I will send all the youngsters to Nashville, where they will receive their racing lessons," said Phillips. "It is doubtful if any of Cook's horses will be raced this winter. If any are raced it will be at New Orleans."

DISASTROUS JUMPING RACE.

FRANK MC LOSES HIS LIFE AND HIS RIDER BREAKS AN ARM.

Jockey O'Neill Lets Onyx II. Run Out of the Course and Is Ruled Off the Turf—A Beginner Wins the Race.

Cincinnati, O., October 29.—Frank Mc, which with Lady Jocelyn, caused the public money in the steeplechase at Latonia today, fell at the sixth jump, broke a shoulder and was destroyed. Pemberton, his rider, had his left arm broken. Lady Jocelyn finished fourth. The race was won by Edward Corrigan's Barnes, a newcomer in the steeplechase game.

After Frank Mc came to grief Onyx II., ridden by O'Neill, assumed a long lead, but at the last field jump he ran out of the course. Secretary Lyman Davis, who acted as patrol judge, reported to the judges that the rider had made no effort to keep the horse in the course. O'Neill was ruled off for life. Arc Light pulled up very lame.

Besterling's victory was costly to at least one of the bookmakers. It is said that his bankroll was wiped out. Alta McDonald made a notable showing in the first race. Miss Rillie and Darthula were the only pronounced favorites to win. The former was ridden by Ferris, a lad under contract to J. B. Respass. He is only fourteen years old and weighs ninety pounds. Miss Rillie carried an extra five pounds today because the Latonia management had not been officially advised that Ferris was entitled to the apprentice allowance. W. Ott was fined $25 by the starter for disobedience at the post.

Wexford, recently purchased by Phil Chinn ran away five miles Saturday night and as a result was so stiff and sore today that he could not race. High Bear and Sam Craig were excused on account of lameness. J. B. Dunn and E. J. Gildersleeve will ship their horses to California. F. Brown has sold Belleview for $1,000 to E. Dealy. The horse will be shipped to California. Manfred broke down badly in the third race and it is doubtful if he will ever be a starter again. C. C. McCafferty claimed Salvage after the second race for $1,100.

COLONEL BAIRD INSTRUCTS THE JOCKEYS.

Senior Steward of the Jockey Club in England Has Heart to Heart Talk With Riders.

The English Jockey Club made a novel move about a fortnight ago in lecturing a number of the leading jockeys as to what constituted fair and foul riding and as to how a rider should pass another, and so on. It was a very peculiar move on the part of such a conservative body, for heretofore it was never known to offer the least advice to riders, but simply to discipline an offender. Of late there has been quite a lot of bumping and unpleasant wrangling, so the Jockey Club thought the best plan was to have a little heart to heart talk with the boys. It was at Newmarket that the stewards requested the jockeys to appear before them.

Colonel E. W. Baird, the senior steward of the Jockey Club, and as such practically the most influential race course ruler in the world, was the spokesman and he gave utterance to some exceedingly sensible remarks about the conduct of jockeys in races. Among those present were Danny Maher, J. H. (Skeets) Martin, W. Halsey, B. Dillon, A. Templeman, F. Templeman, R. Jones, O. Madden, H. Watts, H. Jones, Trigg, Saxby, Higgs, Griggs, Randall, Lynham, Wootton, Pike, Escott, Heckford, Plant, Howard, and Heppell. They were told that they must keep straight, that if they crossed another horse they would lose their license. Colonel Baird referred to the vexed question of jockeys trying to come up on the rail, which has become such an important matter in English race courses of late. He said "jockeys on the rail who have their horses beaten sometimes pull out and let another horse through. You must not do that. If your horse is beaten you must let him drop out where he is, and not pull out. Frequently jockeys shout out to one another in a race, calling on them to pull out. Jockeys should take no notice of this. They must keep their own line and not pull out to let other jockeys up."

NATHANSON RETURNS FROM THE EAST.

Secretary Nathanson of the Crescent City Jockey Club returned to Chicago from New York yesterday. His visit to the east was in the interest of the winter meeting at the old track in New Orleans. He says there will be more horses than he can possibly find stable room for. Altogether he seems highly pleased at the prospect for a successful winter. Incidentally, he expressed the opinion that jockey Radtke will not lose his license at the hands of the Jockey Club stewards, to whom his case was referred by the officials at Jamaica. Horsemen generally, he says, do not believe that the boy gave Tommy Waddell a criminal ride. Mr. Nathanson will leave for New Orleans in about ten days.

TODAY'S BEST.

At Latonia—Lexoline, fifth race.
Best of the day—A. Muskoday.

LORD BENTINCK'S COSTLY MISCALCULATION.

In an early edition of Baily's Magazine the Hon.
Francis Lawley tells a story which most strikingly illustrates the uncertainty of racing and the difficulty of making anything like accurate forecasts.
It would be hard to find a more remarkable instance of the way in which, with the best of all conceivable means of judging, an owner and his associates have judged wrongly. Here is the story:

"The Stewards' Cup, at Goodwood, founded in 1840, was a race at which Lord George Bentinck always aimed. It was his ambition to win it in 1843 with African, which he backed for a very large sum, and which started first favorite, at 3 to 1. On the day before the race Lord George's confederate, the late Duke of Richmond, resolved that he would start his four-year-old mare Belena for the Stewards' Cup, although she had been tried as being slightly inferior to African at the weights. They were, however, so near together that Belena was thought to be dangerous, and Lord George was obliged to back her, partly to cover his outlay on African and also to make her a good winner, and here let me add that I cannot in the least understand what the Duke meant or anticipated.

"However, at the last moment it unfortunately occurred to Lord George that he had backed The Whaler, a three-year-old belonging to the Duke of Richmond, heavily for the Goodwood Stakes, and that Kitchener, who then weighed less than three stone, was to ride him. Thinking that it would give the little boy confidence if before the Goodwood Stakes he had a mount in another big field, Lord George desired John Kent to send for Yorkshire Lady, and to start her with Kitchener on her back. Yorkshire Lady was a four-year-old, handicapped at six stone four pounds in the Stewards' Cup, but having been amiss she was totally untrained.

"A boy was immediately despatched on John Kent's back to the stables at Goodwood, and he galloped back to the course on Yorkshire Lady as hard as she could lay her legs to the ground. With her ordinary shoes on her feet and blowing like a grampus, as she had been fed and watered, she was just in time to get to the starting post with Kitchener up before the flag fell. There were several false starts, during which Yorkshire Lady regained her wind, and to the horror of Lord George the end of the race resolved itself into a struggle between Yorkshire Lady and Belena, the former winning by half a length."

"THE LESS SAID THE BETTER."

"As to the outlook for next year, well, the less said the better. The election is still before us.
The proverbial Devil and the Deep Sea dance alluring on either hand, and no man may say what the morrow will bring forth," says Sports of the Times in the course of its comment on racing at the New York tracks.

"All bathos, of course, but between the rival candidates for Governor, there is a great gulf fixed,
and who can say whether the confines of the said gulf do not extend so far beyond the horizon line, that, like the oft-quoted 'extremes,' they may 'meet' on racing opinions. There lies the rub, and only Time, the great solver of intricate problems, will tell.

"Of course there will always be racing. It is inherent in the American as in the English race. They may hamper it, they may clog it, but not while the healthy blood flushes the veins will it be stamped out, or seriously injured. The one thing racing asked is that it be let alone, that reformers attend to their own troubles. To what extent this will be the case will probably be the last thought of most sensible, observant racing men as, at the close of the somewhat dreary racing season of 1906, they seek the old 'earth' for their customary hibernation, and carefully and effectually draw the hole in after them."

COLONIAL GIRL GOES TO KENTUCKY.

New York, October 29.—Colonial Girl has not been sold to F. C. Bishop and she will not be bred to the French horse Adam next spring. Along with Mabel Richardson, Colonial Girl has been shipped to Kentucky to be turned out at Tom Stevens' Walnut Hills farm. She will be mated with Cesar-next spring. Rowe says her racing days are at an end and that he has decided not to sell her to any one. Rowe has disposed of such other horses he had that were in racing condition and he is temporarily out of the game. A few days ago he made an effort to buy back from Grant Hugh Browne the good colt Sewell. He said this was chiefly due to the fact that his wife is a great admirer of the youngster and was dissatisfied when he parted with him to the owner of the Brown-leigh Park Stable. The contract which he holds on the services of jockey Sewell has another year
to run, but the papers are on the market.

BENNETT HORSES EN ROUTE TO TENNESSEE.

New York, October 29.—The stable of George C.
Bennett is on its way to Memphis. It had been the intention of Mr. Bennett to race at Aqueduct, but after the defeat of Dishabile in the Southold Handicap, the Tennessee turfman concluded to go into winter quarters at the farm near Memphis. Dish-abile will not be raced during the winter. Neither will Ethon. It is the intention of Mr. Bennett to reserve the latter for the campaign among the three-year-olds in this neck of the woods next year.
There are a number of yearlings at the Bennett farm. As soon as he gets home with the older horses, trainer Mulholland will turn his attention to these youngsters. Some of them will be prepared for the early two-year-old racing at New Orleans.
The most promising ones, however, will be reserved
for the racing hereabouts next season.

FORSYTHE WILL RACE AT BENNING.

New York, October 29.—Fred A. Forsythe, who went to Memphis a fortnight ago to superintend the breaking of his yearlings at Montgomery Park, has returned. He will race Tourenne, Montgomery and the other horses in his stable at Aqueduct and Washington and will then go into winter quarters at Memphis. Montgomery likes to go a route and Mr. Forsythe expects him to give a good account of himself at Aqueduct and Benning. It is not certain that Tourenne will go into winter quarters with the Forsythe string. It is understood that some tempting offers have been made for the half brother to Mamie Worth, and it may be that he will be sold during the coming month.

ALL "TRYING" AT LATONIA.

"In one particular the fall meeting thus far differs from that long summer session at Latonia," says the Cincinnati Enquirer. "There is less talk about this one not trying, that one 'in the can,' he's dead as a door nail, and all of that sort of guff.
There was certainly enough of that aloof in the good old summer time, and not without foundation,
as was subsequently discovered at an investigation
held by the American Turf Association."

LADY AMELIA IS RETIRED.

New York, October 29.—All prospects, if there ever was really any such, of a race between America's fastest sprinters, Roseben and Lady Amelia, has been obliterated by the announcement that E. R.
Thomas has taken the Ben Brush—La Colonia mare, Lady Amelia, off the turf for good. She will be sent to Mr. Thomas' stock farm in New Jersey.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

[Communications without names and addresses of senders will not be answered or noticed.]

Dolan, St. Louis, Mo. Matter investigated thoroughly and not a single book had up a show price at post time.

H. H., St. Louis, Mo. The straight bet lost and the place bet was a draw, there being no coupled price against the entry.

J. F. S., Berlin, Ont. Salvage had been sold and Prince Brutus was the Daly entry. If the straight bet was on "the Daly entry" it lost. The place price won at the place price laid against Prince Brutus.

A. T., Cincinnati, O. Your parlay was void as to Rubinon, attaching to him only in the race of which you had knowledge of his being entered and from which he was scratched. In the other case cited the place bet on the entry was void because no coupled price was laid.

Winner—B. c. by Sanders—Golden Horses (trained by J. R. Taylor).
Went to post at 2:01. At post 2 minutes. Start bad. Won driving; second and third the same.
Alta McDonald, away well and showing improved form, was a forward contender all the way and, standing a hard drive gamely through the last furlong, wore down The Golden Bird and won drawing out. The Golden Bird ran a good race, but tired at the end. Ouardi, away poorly, closed a big gap steadily and was going fastest at the end. Caper was taken wide throughout and ran fairly well only. San Ardo showed good form under improved handling. Charley Ward, away badly, ran a winning race and is in good form at present. Cahore showed the most early speed and will improve.

Winner—Ch. c. by Gotham—Addie Mc (trained by S. M. Henderson).
Went to post at 2:28. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same.
McChord, away fully in action, was out from the start, but wore Salvage down steadily in the drive through the stretch and, finishing fast and gamely, got up in the final strides and won going away. Salvage showed superior early speed, but was excessively used and, better handled, could not have lost. King Pepper was a sharp contender most of the way and ran a good race. Posid also ran fairly well and was taken wide most of the way. Lieutenant Rice closed a big gap from a poor beginning and will improve. Nonie Lucille and Governor Orman tired badly in the last quarter. French Nun ran far below her best form and is a rank in-and-outer.

Went to post at 2:52. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second driving; third the same.
Darthula ran as if she outclassed the others, showed the most speed and, after being restrained for the first three-quarters, took a long lead, but tired slightly in the final sixteenth. Gladiator ran a good race for him and finished going gamely and fast. Red Thistle tired after going three-quarters and had no mishaps. The Thrall had no mishaps and ran fairly well. Joe Lesser can do much better. Manfred broke down badly after going three-quarters and pulled up much distressed. Willowdene ran poorly.

Winner—B. c. by Riley—Bessie Barnes (trained by J. Collins).
Went to post at 3:17. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won handily; second driving; third the same.
Barnes, fencing well and skillfully handled, showed improved form and, after being a close contender in the early stages, wore down the leaders in the stretch run and won well in hand. Sam Hoffheimer also showed improvement and ran a good race, tiring slightly in the final drive. Dawson had clear sailing throughout and finished going gamely. Plea tired in the last round of the field. Lady Jocelyn ran poorly and had a rough trip, being impeded several times. Arc Light pulled up very lame. Onyx II was a seeming winner when he ran out at the last jump in the field. Frank Mc was in the lead when he fell after going over the sixth jump and broke his shoulder.
Scratched—(56256) John Dillon, 140; (56194) Evander, 138.
Overweights—Onyx II, 1 pound.

TUESDAY

One I have an interest in. He has the speed and stamina to run rings around the rest of the field and is ready for the fray. 20 to 1 should be the price on this cinch.

WEDNESDAY

A hummer, fit and ready, nicely placed, and all things are attended to. Should breeze all the way at about 15 to 1.

Here is your opportunity and don't fail to take advantage of it. What I give you is the goods at a price with stable connections betting a bunch. I am strongly connected and can convince the most skeptical person with a short trial.
